SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Prayer of Pope Francis for the Jubilee

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved.

Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief.

Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: "If you knew the gift of God!"

You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified.

You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God.

Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind.

We ask this of you, Lord Jesus, through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy; you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.

St. Patrick Parish

"In the Roman Catholic tradition, the people of Saint Patrick Parish are called to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ by our words and actions through the celebration of the Sacraments, acts of justice and charity and life-long faith formation; the fruits of which are a welcoming faith-filled community bringing ourselves and others, through God's grace, to salvation."

Global Solidarity: Catholic Relief Services

US-Cuba Sister Parishes. Cuba & the US recently restored diplomatic relations, severed in 1961 when Cuba aligned with Communist Soviet Union. Cubans experienced great economic inequality & political repression under Communism. Since 2000, Archdiocese of Indianapolis has partnered with Archdiocese of Camaguey, Cuba to support our Cuban brothers & sisters, mainly in areas of medical assistance & emergency relief.. Despite profound social reforms, living conditions for Cubans are quite severe due to poverty & economic uncertainty. With improved relations, US parishes have an opportunity to assist a Camaguey parish in meeting their medical, religious & educational needs. US and Cuban Church leaders support initiatives that link Archindy and Camaguey parishes. Fourteen parishes in Camaguey seek to twin with US parishes through PTPA. Reflections from Deacon Mike Stratman

Our Father Knows Best

In chapter 6 of Matthew's gospel, Jesus gave his disciples the Lord's Prayer as an example of how to pray. Right before he spoke those famous words, Jesus shared a few reasons why one should pray. In order to do this, Jesus provided us two negative examples of how not to pray. Jesus said the Pharisees prayed in public because they wanted to be seen as holy by other people. Secondly, Jesus also said pagans prayed by repeating themselves over and over again, because they believed that the more frequently they asked for something the better chance of having their request answered. Jesus reassured His disciples that God already knows what you need.

If God knows what you need before you ask, why bother to pray? Jesus' point is, the purpose of prayer is not to be noticed by other people or even by God. God already notices you. Prayer is a way to draw your attention to how much you need God. Your greatest need is to know, love and serve God. Communicating with God through prayer, keeps you aware of how much God is involved in your life. It also helps you see how many of your needs are answered by God.

The Lord's Prayer teaches you to pray for your daily bread whatever that may be. It is also a sign that you trust in God that He knows what is best for us. Jesus' words from Matthew remind us that God needs to be involved in your life, not merely informed about it. The more you recognize your dependence on God, the more thankfully you become and the deeper your love grows. My sisters and brothers, continue to offer your joys and sorrows and then you will find true peace!!

together through prayer and service,

Deacon Mike
