Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our Archdiocese will be taking up the Peter's Pence Collection on July 2, 2017. Our participation supports the charitable work of Pope Francis as he reaches out to those who are marginalized and suffering around the globe. By supporting this collection, you join the Holy Father in bringing a little more mercy into the world.

Pope Francis called to us in his 2016 Urbi et Orbi address, "May efforts be made everywhere to promote the culture of encounter, justice and reciprocal respect, which alone can guarantee the spiritual and material welfare of all people." We are taking up this collection to be part of the Church's effort to promote a culture of encounter and justice. Your support makes it possible for the Holy Father to carry out his charitable works around the world, to help victims of war, natural disasters, and other difficult situations.

Let us join with our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe to help Pope Francis reach the marginalized in our world. Please prayerfully consider how you can best support the collection this year.

Thank you and May God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

William F Stumpf

Reverend Monsignor William F. Stumpf
Archdiocesan Administrator
Archdiocese of Indianapolis

Reflections from Deacon Mike Stratman

God's strength is best seen in our weakness!

Male peacocks are beautiful creatures with blue green feathers and long trains tipped with "eyes" colored with a blend of gold, red and blue. They are striking beautiful birds, but they had big ugly feet!

To be honest, most of us have some type of physical limitation. It may be something we've been born with all our lives or one we've recently acquired.

Paul described his deficiency as a "thorn in the flesh" that kept him humble. Three times he asked the Lord to remove it, probably thinking that he could then serve God better. The Lord reassured him, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness".

One of the ironies of faith is that God often chooses us to accomplish His most important tasks despite our imperfection, not because of our speaking ability, looks, or fitness for the task. I read a quote that said, "God was looking for someone weak enough to use, and He found you and me!"

When we find our strength in God, despite our weaknesses, He can use us in ways we could never imagine!

Together through prayer and service,
Deacon Mike

GENERAL ANNOUNCMENTS FOR ST. PAT'S & ST. MARGARET MARY
RCIA Inquiry	Are you or anyone you know interested in learning about the Catholic faith? If so, the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a good place to begin. RCIA Inquiry will start again Wednesday, August 16th from 6:30-8:30 pm at St. Margaret Mary, in the basement of the Dede Center. Babysitting is available and all are welcome to attend. Please contact Donna Wenstrup at the parish office to learn more about RCIA, to register, or if Wednesday evenings are not a good time for you to meet.
Summer Bible Study	Beginning June 4th at SMM, the Adult Bible Study is offering Bishop Robert Barron's Catholicism: The Pivotal Players. Discover the figures who shaped the Church and changed the world! Attend any or all of the 12 sessions at no cost, and no previous study needed. We will meet in the craft room of the Dede Center from 9:30-10:45 am, before Sunday Mass. Each Sunday, we will explore a new Pivotal Player in the life of the Church.
Religious Education	Registration packets for the fall will be mailed in July, posted on our webpage and also available at the bulletin boards in the Church. The first day of Religious Education in the fall will be Sunday, August 20th for St. Patrick and August 27th for St. Margaret Mary. Mark your calendars now for that kickoff! Enjoy your summer! We are also looking for a co-catechist for the 3rd grade, and 7th grade classes. Please contact Donna Wenstrup to talk about these ministry opportunities
STEPHEN MINISTRY	We have 8 Stephen Ministers meeting with people who have experienced a loss or life crisis. For one hour each week, Stephen Ministers offer compassionate, listening care. In addition, during the month of June, we will be studying the issues that people experience in the process of aging. We are committed to being there for our parishioners, since no one should have to suffer alone. It is in sharing our suffering that the burden is eased a bit.

St. Patrick Parish

"In the Roman Catholic tradition, the people of Saint Patrick Parish are called to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ by our words and actions through the celebration of the Sacraments, acts of justice and charity and life-long faith formation; the fruits of which are a welcoming faith-filled community bringing ourselves and others, through God's grace, to salvation."

Updated Information Needed

We are in the process of updating the family information for our 2018 Parish Guide Book and Directory. Is your family information correct? Have you changed your phone number in the last year or so? Have you dropped your land lines and only use cell phones? Have you moved? Are you preparing to move soon? Are all of your children still at home and are they included in your membership record. St. Patrick's has again contracted with Guide Book Publishing to prepare the annual Parish Guide Book Directory that is no cost to the parish and we want to make sure we have all of YOUR family information correct. If you have not recently informed the parish office about any changes to your record, please let us know now so that the information in the Guide Book & Directory is correct. You may contact Malia Mohan at the parish office by phone at 812.232.8518. or malia.mohan@saintpat.org.

Thank you!

Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowl

Thank you so much to all of you who sent in donations through the Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowls this Lent. We were able to send in $821.98 to low income countries all over the world. Thank you for your generosity!

Carmelite Novena

The Carmelite nuns are hosting a novena (9 days of prayer) in honor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, at the Carmelite Monastery, 59 Allendale. The novena will take place from July 8-16, the feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Each evening beginning at 7 pm, the rosary and novena prayer will be recited, followed by Holy Mass. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available from 6-7 pm. Our novena preacher this year is Fr. Mark O'Keefe, a Benedictine monk & chaplain at the Carmelite Monastery. Knowing his homilies well, the Carmelites warmly recommend him! His theme will be "The Blessed Virgin Mary in the New Testament: Lessons for Christian Living."

MONDAY, JULY 10TH IS THE SPECIAL NIGHT RESERVED FOR THE PARISH OF ST. PATRICK.

We are also looking for 2 volunteers to be gift bearers the night of July 10th. Please call the parish office to volunteer.

St. Patrick School of the Terre Haute Deanery is hiring!

We will be filling three positions, along with three new teaching positions for a total of six new hires at SPS this summer! Each of the openings has been posted on the Archdiocese of Indianapolis website link provided below. If you know of a dedicated, dynamic team player who holds a valid teaching license and may be interested in joining our SPS family, please forward the link and invite them to apply. We are excited to announce that our teacher pay is very competitive in our community, and the perks of being part of a Catholic Christian community are unbeatable!
